Just to say we had the Warning at 12-25 & Dad was on duty till 11-20 am. We had lots of Noise. & a fire seemed to burn over N. E. Glasgow. However its a blessing it did not continue long. Love to Mrs Martin

Love Mum.

My Dear George.

Delighted to receive your Tuesday letter today on our arrival back from Aunt Carries. at 8.30 pm. it was very wet & we had to take the Tram to Eglinton Toll but arrived home safe & dry. Well George glad to learn that you are finding plenty of time to visit the pictures & enjoying the programmes. I am sure Dan Kerr will be pleased to hear from you Uncle James & Aunt Carrie were delighted to get your letter. Aunt Carrie is still in bed, but she can do a big washing and go back to bed all out. I dont know what to think of her. She was up all forenoon today doing the ironing & then when I arrive she is in bed, Dad came at 5-30 for Tea. Uncle Jamie was in town visiting his usual haunts, we all had a good Tea I supplied the cakes Crumpets & Bun Bisauits we at least had fresh cats, although there was bags of stale pancakes etc in the bread box. (I never let on) Dads duty at the Post comes every 6th day so he is kept busy now, & has made a stack on the garden. Tuesday I went down to see aunt Betty & had Baby Duncan Martin & pram visit me. I offered to keep him to allow Mrs Martin & her Mother & Malcolm into town. Mrs M was buying a new Coat. The wee lad was good & seemed to enjoy his visit wee Hugh does very keen to keep him. I arrived home just as Dad was coming up the street, after Tea Dad went to the garden & I went to the last meeting of the social Centre. Mrs Hamilton went with me & we met Mrs Murchie & the Miss Hendrys. It was a very happy meeting. a lot of the young members were singing & reciting & Irene Burchill did two readings & was in a small sketch with Mira Hardie (the church officers daughter) we got a lovely hand round tea with plenty of nice home baked things, the night cost nothing so there was no collection. Well George we are glad the parcel arrived safely & hope you are enjoying the Model making. I expect Ha-ha-Hi will be causing lots of fun.

You will be looking forward to seeing the Picture, The Road to Morocco, after enjoying the Road to Zanzibar. Dad & I must look out for them visiting the Tudor.
Dad has now the wee cup of tea ready so will close with lots of love from Dad & Mum.
