My Dearest Mere,

Many thanks for your letter (No 9.) which I'll commence to answer - [illegible] I'm writing this in the dormitory, can you read it, your dear mind? - Good.

Main item of interest I'm just dead from a week end visit to Winnipeg - Rob Blight (my co pilot) and myself got permission to undertake a flight to Winnipeg and back on a [illegible] to our instructors and ourselves were on best behaviour as we thought to spend them in that lovely city. We started Friday at 8.30 a.m. and came back this morning Monday, which is nearly three days - not bad, - I suppose you'd like a line from Winnipeg telling you about the club & all the dances. Were invited as usual to the home for tea on Saturday and the Dad a very nice daughter and an English girl also very nice who came over the bay running [illegible] we had a grand time, we went canoeing on the river in the evening, you read canoes too, you have to be very careful as they tip over very easily but it's fun, good fun, believe me & got the hang of it after a while and so it was about dusk with the sun going down and lights twinkling up over reflecting off the water, it was really grand believe me, you could hear dance all around, it even had boating & the Strum. We had a real grand week end - night seeing, eating, dancing, shopping, etc etc etc.

I sent a parcel off from one of the Dry Goods (Eaton's, they have branches everywhere) - most of the good parcels I've sent have gone from Eaton's - Mecca Eaton, you have a ticket thing, you fill in the different departments, & then what you want, anywhere in the store, then when its the required weight, you take the ticket to the cash desk, and pay for it all, & the various departments send the stuff to the delivery & they pack it, and post it, - very helpful, - I sent some cosmetics & stuff from Winnipeg, & explained all about the import duty & posted from the Simms Block. Many, - very many thanks for your kind offer re the Rockies, I'd love to go, but it would need at least 100 bucks (or dollars to you) which is about £25 or £30 for just a couple of days - its so far away - but maybe there'll be a flight some Sat-Sun which would help, - you know what the Government expense, & I've heaps of time for leave. (Lucky I'm saving)

I'm glad you enjoyed the Recital at the Kings & sounded good to me, - I'm not up with them one day - & thafe, - Oh yes, I was going to send some many blue materials for you & Chris, when I was at Winnipeg but I forgot how much material was required - just length and if one does each thing, & I'm sure all & want know is some each - easy eh??

Many thanks for the photos, & Dennis got it yet, but I recon did, which is very helpful & do really want one of all of you - & miss you both heaps - no kid!!

Here we go again, I couldn't resist another one as I've all of flights as I also I am out of paper. Best as I've said, we're off again, nice pad, and yes Hillad Fall and everything in the garden is lovely.

You speak about holidays with me at the end of the year, - well now I've some rather glum news, there is the possibility of some of us being made instructs which means that we'd have to spend at least a year over here, of course we've no idea yet what's going to happen, naturally we all want to get back to England so we're all hoping for the best personally I don't really mind, of course I want to get back home, but on the other hand if we do get made instructs there'll be a lot of extra experience which is sure to come in handy later on, so as long as I pass OK. - (fingers crossed) I don't mind, - but I still want to get back to jolly old England. - Of course none of this is pukka yet, but I thought I'd mention it, so as you won't look forward too much to the fall (as if you would) and then be disappointed, but still keep your fingers crossed - won't you.

Well I can't think of much else to write about, so I'll close now, and hope to make a longer letter next time, (you can't have one every time you go no

Goodnight, God bless, - tons of love & kisses

Your fastest

(still called that by the Canadians) Arthur.
