My Darling Bob -

I was most disappointed at not receiving a letter from you yesterday. It seems a long time since Saturday's post. Today, I shall have to wait until tea time, as I have been to town for lunch today.

Mum & Dad have cycled to Little Hirst. I wish I could have gone too, though really I am contented at work.

I spent all yesterday in the glorious sunshine & I am now wizzardly brown. Even A.J. remarked on my darkness, today!! I was in the garden yesterday morning, shelling peas, cutting flowers etc and then Alice called and we had a 'critical' hour, discussing everybody!!

In the afternoon, I just lay in the sunshine until 4.00 pm when we went to Keasy Lan for tea and Garden Fête. The latter was not very interesting fare, but I met all our relations I think!!

By the way, your parcel arrived just as Ann had finished packing, so you will have to wait a day or two, I'm afraid.

My only duds at Law, was my tennis shoes, so you can imagine the colour TIN I looked against white - I do keep wishing we were together to sunbathe & swim. I was longing to swim all yesterday and am hoping we shall have good (very) weather on our next leave then we can go to the Anchorage or somewhere

I have delivered Wilf's shirt c/o Sq Ldr Roberts to forward. I didn't bother about showing Wilf the bath. They are quite equal when you come to examine them.

Yesterday, I put my swimming suit on to sunbathe, but was so disgusted with me, so I changed back into shorts. (I think, she thought Billie would be spying on me—!)

O.J. seems to have fully recuperated.
How are you dear? I have had a series of pains in my tummy recently. But I think they were indigestion. I feel better again.

I kept thinking how hot it will be for you flying my dearest. Do take care and write and tell me all you can.

Well dearest, here's Cheers for now.

Yours for Ever,

Joan
