Dear Mam + Dad,

Well as you will see I have moved once again and at last we seem to be getting somewhere. Only three out of the five of us who were at Boltishall however were posted and I was lucky enough to be one of them.

I do not like this camp as much as Boltishall but it is nearer to at town, Oxford, which is seven miles away and there is quite a good transport system. We are also on a main road and the village of Kidlington, which is quite large, is only about half a mile away.

I received the parcel and letter from you last Saturday. Thanks for the gloves the other pair are in ribbons: and also for the chocolate and sweets.

In the letter from Gus he appears to be getting on O.K. and he is trying to get back to Canada on a pilots' course so we may see him over here if the war lasts long enough. He says he is expecting a increase in his family and Jan, his wife, wants to call it after me if it is a boy. Does that make me its "godfather" or something?
He said he thought it did.

I guess that's all for now; I hope you received my laundry O.K.
Please let me have it back as soon as possible. your loving son Lewis
