CONDITIONS OF RELEASE AND NOTES ON PAYMENT OF ALLOWANCES AND RELEASE BENEFITS

1. Officers of the R.A.F.O. and R.A.F.V.R.—You are hereby released from Air Force duty under the regulations affecting the Reserve in which you are commissioned.

2. Officers of the A.A.F.—You are hereby released from the obligations to which you are subject by reason of embodiment of that part of the Force of which you are a member, under the provisions of the Armed Forces (Conditions of Service) Act, 1939.

3. All Officers released.—Your release is subject to and on the following conditions:—

(a) Your commission is not terminated by this release from duty.

You remain liable to recall to duty until your commission is relinquished or otherwise terminated. Ordinarily, a communication in regard to relinquishment will be issued at the end of the Emergency.

(b) Your pay and allowances cease on your last day of service i.e. your effective date of release and no time after that date will count for promotion or non-effective award or other Service benefits so long as you are on release.

(iii) Until your commission is relinquished or terminated—

(a) You must notify Air Ministry (O.A.R.), Adastral House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2, of any change in your address. This is required both for service reasons and to enable any communication in regard to future payments or medals or decorations to reach you. (see also para 7).

(b) If you become medically unfit through any injury, illness or disability which renders you unfit for further service you should also notify Air Ministry (O.A.R.).

(c) You may not enlist or enter any other branch of H.M. Forces or the service of any other country or depart from the U.K. without permission from the Air Ministry, Adastral House, Kingsway, for consent.

(d) You should preserve your uniform in good condition in case of recall to duty.

(e) Uniform is not to be worn after the expiration of any leave granted you on release except on specially authorised occasions or on occasions of State Ceremony.

(iv) You are not entitled to service travel rate concessions for yourself or any members of your family after the expiration of any leave granted to you on release. If no leave be granted, the entitlement ceases on the day you departed from the Dispersal Centre.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS—Notification to Air Ministry

If you change your address before your commission is terminated you should notify Air Ministry (O.A.R.) Adastral House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2.

Your notification should be in the following form:—

4. Class A Release—(Age and Service). (i) Any reinstatement rights that you may have under the Reinstatement in Civil Employment Act, 1944, arise immediately on your departure from the Dispersal Centre.

(ii) Payment of allowances due to you up to the day of your leaving your unit for release will be paid by your existing accounting unit. Payment of allowances from that date up to the effective date of your release will be paid monthly by the Dispersal Centre into your Banking Account.

(iii) Any payments to which you may be entitled in respect of your service for War Gratuity and Post War Credits will be made in the form of a deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank on the 57th day after you left the Dispersal Centre. A Post Office Savings Bank Book will then be forwarded to you by the Head Office of the Post Office Savings Bank.

5. Class B Releases—(National Reconstruction).

(i) You have been released in advance of ordinary turn at the request of the Ministry of Labour and National Service, in order to perform work of national reconstruction. You are to report to the Employment Exchange or employer as shown below within seven days from the date of your departure from the Dispersal Centre. You will ordinarily be required to commence work on the expiration of your leave, but may commence earlier if you desire. You will be directed into the employment for which you have been released.

(ii) Payment of allowances due to you up to the day of your leaving your unit for release will be paid by your existing accounting unit. Payment of allowances from that date up to the effective date of your release will be paid by the Dispersal Centre into your Banking Account.

(iii) Any payments to which you may be entitled in respect of your service overseas or for War Gratuity and Post War Credits will be made in the form of a deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank at the end of the Emergency. A Post Office Savings Bank Book will then be forwarded to you by the Head Office of the Post Office Savings Bank.

(iv) If at any time prior to the date on which the Emergency is declared ended by Order in Council you cease to perform the work for which you have been released, save for reasons of ill health, your release will be revoked and you will be recalled to duty.

6. Class C Releases (Compassionate).

(i) You have been released in advance of ordinary turn, on extreme compassionate grounds. Any reinstatement rights that you may have under the Reinstatement in Civil Employment Act, 1944, arise immediately on your departure from the Dispersal Centre.

(ii) Payment of allowances due to you up to the day of your leaving your unit for release will be paid by your existing accounting unit. Payment of allowances from that date up to the effective date of your release will be paid by the Dispersal Centre into your Banking Account.

(iii) Any payments to which you may be entitled in respect of your service for War Gratuity and Post War Credits will be made in the form of a deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank on the 57th day after you left the Dispersal Centre. A Post Office Savings Bank Book will then be forwarded to you by the Head Office of the Post Office Savings Bank.

REMOBILISATION INSTRUCTIONS

(RECALL TO DUTY).

1. As stated in the Conditions of Release you remain liable to recall to duty until your commission is relinquished or otherwise terminated.

2. Such recall may be issued in the form of individual instructions in which case you will be given full instructions as to where and when you are to report.

3. If a public general notice or proclamation is issued revoking releases and recalling officers to duty you should immediately prepare yourself to return to duty and watch the press or public notice boards for further instructions as to when you are to report.

4. If remobilisation or return to duty is ordered by general notice, or by proclamation revoking releases, a list of R.A.F. Remobilisation Stations will be published in the press and by public notice, showing the particular stations under code letters.

Your code letter is A and on the publication or proclamation of instructions which apply to you, you should report to the station to which this code letter applies.

5. You should report at your Remobilisation Station as shown above, in uniform.

6. You should also bring with you:—

- (i) this book.
- (ii) your National Health and Pensions Insurance Contribution Card.
- (iii) your Unemployment Insurance Book.
- (iv) your Civilian Identity Card.
- (v) your Service Identity Disc.

If you cannot get these at once do not delay but arrange for them to be sent on after you. If you are sick when due to report you must immediately inform the Officer Commanding the station at which you are to report, enclosing a medical certificate. You should report immediately you are fit for duty.

To be completed for all officers.

Part III to be completed at Dispersal Centre for insured officers.

Part I—Instructions to Released Person.

MEDICAL TREATMENT AFTER LEAVING DISPERSAL CENTRE.

You are entitled to medical benefit under the National Health Insurance Acts and a medical card telling you how to get treatment will be sent to you as soon as possible. Medical benefit includes free treatment from an insurance doctor at his surgery, or if your condition requires it, at your home, and free medicine.

If you go back to live in your old district and had an insurance doctor before you joined up you will be restored to his list if he is still in practice himself or by deputy.

If you fall ill before the medical card comes, fill in the application below and hand this book to your previous insurance doctor (or, if absent, his deputy). If you did not have an insurance doctor before you joined up or if you go to live in another part of the country, apply to any insurance doctor. You can see a list of insurance doctors at the local Post Office.

Do not detach the form from the book. The doctor will do this.
Turn over for information about hospital treatment.

Part V.—Hospital Treatment during Release Leave.

If you need hospital treatment before the end of your leave you should show this book to your doctor and if he is of opinion that such treatment is necessary he will advise you as to the steps to be taken to obtain that treatment. You should show this Release Book to the hospital authorities when admitted to or attending hospital for treatment.

For the information of the doctor.

In-patient treatment would normally be given at the nearest service or civil Emergency Medical Scheme hospital where the treatment required can be given. If you are in doubt as to the location of the nearest suitable hospital the Hospital Officer for the district in which the patient resides can give you the required information and he will also be in a position to advise as to the nearest military or E.M.S. hospital where any massage, X-ray examination or other out-patient treatment can be obtained.

Part VI to be completed by Doctor providing treatment who should also detach the form and send it to the Insurance Committee (in Northern Ireland to the Ministry of Labour, Stovmont, Belfast), for the area in which the insured person is staying.
