Dear Sir

Mr. Liot the Tancarville farmer when you fell this summer asks me to write and ask you what you thought of his attitude towards you. People around him seem to treat him badly or not haven't hidden you?

He says you were too badly wounded but he feels quite uncomfortable and would like to hear your advice.

They all hope you are now quite all right.
and send you their best greetings -

I am
Yours sincerely,
W. V. V. V.
