Dear Mum

Thank you for your letter, received it on Thurs. The packet arrived ok thank you it's just the right size.

Kick is putting up a jolly good show with his x country isn't he, tell him I will write when I can & congratulate him. Worse luck we don't get any x country runs here. I'm sorry I don't tell you much what I do but you will probably see the censor's stamp on some of the letters. Even if you send registered mail from here you have to leave it open, it's a box really but the money in it would be ok I think don't you?

I'll send some later. The French Chaps here have just been promoted to corporals and I went on a celebration with them on Sat night. No John isn't here, and you will be surprised to know, - or have I told you? that the detective failed at I.T.W. so of course he isn't here either he is in the Navy now. Don't bother to send the tin, I realise how you stand for savings, and you want all the good things you ~~of~~ can get too. I will send the watch if you think it would be ok though it's going perfectly nice, I took it to a jeweller in the town and had it demagnetized. Though I expect it will get the same again after about a week. Fanny Joyce
