My Dear Mum,

Thank you very much for your letter, and the white flash, the one you sent isn't the best one is it? perhaps sometime you could send that one as well as I shan't be wearing a flash when next I come home.

I enjoyed the contents of the tin so much, it was a surprise to get some dates above all things. I went to Cardiff yesterday Saturday and saw Barbara and her cousin and her <sup>boy</sup> friend who is a photographer. I think I told you; they met me off the station and we went to their house to tea (the cousins) and then we went to the New Theatre; they had the seats booked all ready for me, and saw an excellent show. We then went into a very large hotel and had dinner and drinks etc, and a good time was had by all. I enjoyed it immensely, it's such a diversion. In spite of all this I shall endeavor ~~to~~ to gradually fade away from this girl. She is getting far too serious, and when they get like that, I withdraw strategically. I think I have told you that the main backbone of my mail is provided

I hope this letter isn't dealing too much with my lady acquaintances but last week I received a chit to report to the Squadron Officer for registered mail at which I was quite surprised, however when I got it, I found that it was from Peggy and in it were some Lilliputs and a box containing, Baccy (St Bruno), pipe Cleaners, bags of cigarettes, chewing gum, and a pot of some very expensive shaving cream which smells like a rose-garden. Not bad, eh?

I will see about sending the tin home but, to send a parcel, one must take it into the Post Office and unwrap it in view of two censor officers, also by Rose who never writes less than 22 pages. She is a model at collecting pen to write about.

I sent her one of the photographs that I told you I had taken and I have been accepted by the complete family and must be sure to go there if I was anywhere near. Rose and I are more or less serious really, as you know she was the first one I ever had. I will send one of the photographs as soon as I can send another privilege letter but as you know we are only allowed one a week.

They have turned out very well. They are in sepia.

all the rest of the people who happen in at that time (As the Irish say) and that is generally 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80, 90, 100 of the camp! I went for a swim in the pool this morning after breakfast, the facilities are marvellous, I like to go, especially the morning after the night before, so to speak. But I have never felt so fit as since I have been in the Service, I never have the continual catarrh that I used to have. I never even get a cold, in fact I never use a handkerchief. I am so sorry to hear of Geoff's - sorry Coffey's throat and temp, wish him a speedy recovery if he hasn't already done one, - sorry - had one.

Thank Moll very much for her letter and give tell her I am writing when I can catch a stamp.

Could you send Geoffrey's address so that I can send him a greeting for his birthday. Well must really close now. Hope you are very well, and Dad, and Betty & Moll.

lots of love
