My Dear Mum,
Thank you ever so much for the parcel it was a lovely surprise.
I got it on Saturday so it didn't take long did it. Actually I sent a letter off to you but I had already sent a privilege letter this week so they sent it back. It's a lovely one that you got, have you didn't have to pay too much for it. Was I pleased with the chocolate too? it's very seldom that we can get any chocolat from the "Nazi" its generally baked sweets or those tarts of ~~peppermint~~.

The whole contents of the parcel definitely met with my approval.
Glad you have nearly finished the Spring cleaning, what colours have you done the Scullery? I have just had a final progress exam, have passed with flying colours. I came in at 12.30 last night, this morning there only had of the sleep in at all.
I wonder if it would be possible to phone Dad up some time, or would it be too expensive, but the chap in the next bunk phones his wife in Glasgow and it only costs 3/8. There's not much news I can tell you

I hope this letter doesn't seem too lost.
I'm trying my hardest to save bags of cash to pay my debt. I haven't been able to ~~see~~ get the water stop done so I don't risk wearing it much. Well that's all the good for now, write in middle of the week if possible

Fondest love to all
