My Dear Mum,

Thank you very much for your letter. I got it on Wednesday. Did you write this letter before you got mine? because you seem to have asked some questions that I answered in my last letter. The weather here is pretty awful too, but it's never much good in S. Wales. because of the mountains.

As I said before, the quiet here is lovely, and the station itself is bad. The cinema here is a colossal place, much bigger than the Savoy. You say the pictures in the Mirror are very interesting; I haven't seen a Mirror since I left home, but the other day we had a wiper installed in the hut. so we got some gum, an what going on in civilisation. If you manage to send me a parcel, do you think you could put my civic pants in; when the laundry has finished with these things they are like bits of cardboard.

Yes the watch is going perfectly thank it, is so much, I couldn't do without it. When you collect my watch, (if it eventually get done) and if it works ok. take great care of it won't you because I'm still saving like the devil and practically living on air to pay for it. Did Dad think the first instalment was enough?

There isn't leaders here, at all least very few, so we have lock-up boxes, and everything has to be pressed in and if you don't put each object back as you find it, the lid won't shut, you know, something like my Maccano box. Do you think you could spare some sand tholl for some envelopes I've only got another one, I know it's asking a desired lot for the family to pay for postage but that so many chaps buy so many stamps from the N.A.S.T. that their stock is exhausted in no time. And I should like to do a bit more stamping too; please, could you get me one of those thin leaved writing pads with a quill that I told you about, they are only 1/- from Kishelm Billigams in the arcade. I had my photograph taken in Ross last Saturday to see if I could make any improvement on that horrible thing on the lounge mantelpiece, I had it done head and shoulders, I'll send one along when they are done.

Friday

I have just received your letter in the parcel, it was a lovely surprise. I've got something to read now, you want something as a relaxation from Swatting. The parcel didn't take long to come did it? I got it on Friday lunch time.

Must really close now, writing soon please lots of love

Ken xxxxxxxx
