AIRMAN'S SERVICE BOOK

Instructions to Airman.

1. You will be held personally responsible for the safe custody of this book.
2. You will always carry the book on your person both at home and abroad.
3. You must produce the book whenever called upon to do so by a competent authority, civil, naval, military, or air.
4. You must not alter or make any entry in the book, and disobedience of this order will be treated as a serious offence.
5. Should you consider that any entry in the book is lacking or incorrect, or should you lose the book, you will report the matter to your immediate superior in Royal Air Force. Any change in name or address of person to be informed of casualties must be reported immediately to your Commanding Officer.
6. If an airman wishes to make a will with two specimens see p. 10 he should do so on p. 10. It must be signed by him in the presence of two witnesses, both of whom must sign it in his and in the other's presence; but if the will is made by an airman on active service, or under orders for active service, it does not require any witnesses' signatures. The full names and addresses of the persons whom he desires to benefit, and the sum of money or property which he desires to leave them, must be clearly stated.

It is also desirable that he should name a person to act as executor.

SICKNESS WHILST ON LEAVE

1. If when on leave or pass you are a contact of an infectious disease, you will notify your C.O. forthwith, and send a medical certificate showing the date of last exposure to infection.
2. An individual on leave or pass, who requires medical aid, must if practicable, report to the nearest Naval, Military or Air Force Hospital or Sick Quarters, or other establishment where a Service Medical Officer is employed, or a Civil Hospital included under the Ministry of Health Emergency Scheme. If you should reside more than 2 miles from a Service Medical Establishment, and are unable, owing to your condition, to visit an Emergency Medical Service Hospital, although this may be within 2 miles, application may be made to a Civilian Medical Practitioner, to whom you will show this form; fees will then be allowed in accordance with the following scale.

VISIT, MEDICINE AND CERTIFICATES.

			At Patient's Residence.
			Greater Distances.
	Visit to Surgery	If not more than 2 miles away
	s. d.	s. d.
Day ... ..	3 0	4 6	For each additional mile or part of a mile (in one direction only) night or day 6d. with a limit of £1 a visit.
Night 22.00 to 07.00 ... ..	...	6 0

3. The "Distance Fee" is payable in one direction only and in respect only of the first case visited when more than one patient is attended in the neighbourhood on the same occasion. The fee shown in the third column will be allowable for each patient after the first, subject to the maximum limit of £1 17s. 6d. a day for all services.
4. You will report the employment of a Civilian Medical Practitioner at once to your C.O. enclosing the Practitioner's certificate. Claims for medical attendance will be submitted by the Medical Practitioner on form 1667 to your C.O.
5. In all cases where a Civilian Medical Practitioner does not certify that you are unfit to travel, you should return to your unit on the expiry of your leave, or report to the nearest Service Hospital.
6. The Civilian Medical Practitioner should in all certificates state whether or not the individual is fit to travel.
7. If you are unfit on account of sickness, to return to your unit, and are receiving treatment from a Service Medical Establishment, the C.O. of such Establishment will immediately communicate the fact to the C.O. of your unit.
8. You are warned that you are liable to make good the extra expense incurred by engaging the services of a Civilian Medical Practitioner at a distance from your residence, without reasonable cause.
