No. 7 Dear Mum, Date 2/3/44.

Here we are again. Your letters have been coming along nicely - averaging 3 to 4 weeks in transit. Still getting some of Januaries via Canada. The latest was one of those & seeing as it had most news in it I'll answer it. I'll bet you're all pleased with the wool price; it's about the best price we've ever got isn't it. Betty's long letter by sea mail hasn't arrived yet but shouldn't be long because I got one from Betty a couple of days ago written early in January. It was a long one too, but the best part was a photo of her that Goy took on Maroubra beach & it was a beauty.

So Meggs is getting into big time cricket again eh. Wish I could. Haven't had any sport here at R.F.V. They play hockey but our day off a week generally isn't on Sat. so we work. Was to play football yesterday but spent the day in bed as I'd been flying all night before. I suppose none of you saw Max at Xmas - did he write? I must write to him someday if I can make up an address of some sort. I think I'll give his & G.R.'s someplace. Love to all at home. Bert xxxxx
