No. 15. Dear Mum, you'd hardly believe it but there's been a real heat wave here in the past few days, temperatures over 90° & very sticky heat at that, as bad as any I've ever experienced in Sydney & I think. The Aussies in general found it too hot for even them, at least in the clothes we have to wear. The Yanks were amazed at it, blokes from the North anyway who've never experienced any heat. To make it worse the days last until about 11 pm. when it's still hot. We've been off the flying programmes for a couple of nights & been to the pictures - coming out about 10.30, having supper, riding back to camp & then playing cards in our singlets till it cools off enough to sleep. The one consolation is that we haven't got any flies or mosquitos. Letters are starting to turn up at the rate of one a day but still have 6 old ones missing from Betty. Your first numbered one arrived to-day in 2 weeks flat. Meggs is surely bashing the leather about. I suppose the season's over by now. I've had a few hits & bowls at our practice fitch but had no form at all. Cheerio for now. Love to all at home. Bert xxx
