Sender's Address: ⁴⁴⁴²²⁴⁵⁰² Mrs Adams, 117, Adolphus House, Kingway, London.

No. 18. Dear Mum, 25/6/44.

Awfully glad to hear about the beaut drop of rain. Should make all the difference. Am just back in camp after a week's leave in London. Had a great time there too. We'd heard that it was terribly expensive but didn't find it so. Stayed at a serviceman's club for 17/6 & got four lots of free tickets to theatres etc from there & the Boomerang Club. The seats to the stage theatres were all worth about 16/- so that was a great saving. Went out to Zaphow & saw Margaret & her mother again. Had a couple of tours over some of the old places in London, the Tower, Abbey, St Pauls & the Art Gallery. On our last night decided to go highbrow & dined at the Savoy. Towards the end of the evening the managing director of Lyceum (must) invited us over & insisted on paying the bill. He gave us a really wonderful night indeed. We're now in what's said to be the "crack" Bomber group in England & will probably go to any Cassie Squadron in about 2 months. Congrats to Mr & Mrs Putland. Cheers for now.
Love to all at home. Best.
