Dear Meggs,

Well old sport, how are you getting on. Did you hear any of the commentaries on these unofficial Test matches over here. I've heard part of both of them so far - generally the last so before stopping for lunch, tea and the We got a bit of a licking in this last on at lunch time yesterday it looked like the pull through after all with all day to get 200 and only one down but just 40 short when it was finish.

I had a game last Friday here in a pick-up match among the Instrument section - corporals versus "erks". I was roped in to play with the corporals seven men aside everyone fielding. I don't know the reason, perhaps because it was on a concrete pitch with mats which most of these blokes aren't used to or just luck, but I top scored with 36 not out. I had one over too - the second last of the game and bowled their only big scorer first ball. Other time I played here, in Lincoln with the Sta team it was on a grass wicket & as I told you the time I only got a few - couldn't cope with it off the grass at all. You should be just about starting cricket season by the time I get home.

Saw a very excellent picture last night - "Two Girls & a Sailor" - best I've seen for years I reckon - second only to "Here comes Mr Jordan" in my opinion the two best comedies produced.

Glad to hear of the good rains again - good winter coming up eh? Hay's bringing a good price isn't it? Cheers for now Bruce.

Love to all at home. Best XXXX
