My Darling Kay.

Your letter written at the R.O.F. on Saturday arrived yesterday.

Sorry to read that find things so boring, I do wish I was there to meet you out, as you put it.

The Skipper is progressing favourably, & looks as though he should be out by the end of this week, in any case Ian & myself are going over this afternoon to see how he is progressing.

We have just had a new arrival who, knows Reg Randall & Co. including Freda, his name is Sgt Pullen, he seemed to know I was there so probably they told him I was here.

I can get both I think, a fowl & a duck. - but work, the only thing is providing I can advise them soon enough to enable them to dress them probably.

Afraid the coupon is a wee bit hazy, Mac's away at the present, but possibly you can spare some 'pro tempo'.

Have you seen anything of John Clark regarding that watch I left with him for repair.

I like to hear how Selim is getting on, you describe his antics very well indeed. I should love him kicking around here.

If you ever go near Nicholson's Garage & maybe see Roy, could you ask him how much he wants for that motor cycle of his, the Engineer's Office is after me, I've heard of one near Horncastle but am afraid it's too much

I took the kipper some of my
'after shave' lotion over on Sunday, he was as pleased as punch, all he wants now is some foam bath solution. Maybe my chemist's pal will be able to do something.

Afraid Darling, my list of news is being exhausted, the old com:
is still hanging fire, the papers were returned apparently because the M/O hadn't signed that Swans fit etc; that has been rectified & today they're gone again, further waiting. What a bind.

When the post arrives, I must buy you a present, what would you like pippin? I should start thinking, but please let me down lightly, I've just had my monthly returns.

The old section are still deducting present & past

tax, so I have written to Tommy Taff.
I've only been getting just short of $ per fortnight, hopeless isn't it?

I am still hasn't coughed up? Bad show, I could really do with it.

That bill from Bentino
was OK, 25% of it was for the rear light.

My gums have got awfully sore lately, must get some Peroxide & gurgel, simply can't report
pick cause they make such a 'bang & dance' about it.

God bless my darling
be seeing you very soon

Yours always

John
