

COURT OF THEIR MAJESTIES

NEPTUNUS WRECKS

AMPHITRITE & REXONA

COURT DRESS

NOTICE is hereby given on this the clickety-clicketh day of Seewater in the year of Tribulation that is 777,777.7 rec. in the Marine Calendar the Regulations concerning Court Dress as set fifth in the Sub Sections of the Law 000,000 and a little bit of this Marine Statute Book, Vol 85 (now out of print) are valid with the following amendments which are hereby incorporated by His Majesty's Royal Decrees.

Sub. Section P : For "Dam all read Pants" shall be worn by both sexes.

Para the one after : Superceeded i.e. Trusses, bed socks, goon skins re not, permiscable.

Reg. 9 iv line 9 : For W.A.A.A.F.S. read "R.A.A.F.S." for "Furbileaus" read "Mae Wests" are optional.

Furthermore and in addition to the aforesaid, let it be well noted that this Marine Majesty takes the poor view that the wearing of a costume nothing (tout seul) (Free French) constitutes an awful insult to his near Royal Person (if not his girl friend).

Any MUG attending the Royal Court so attired will be charged under Section 40 of the Dog Act, dealt with (and how). Moreover, should any offender or offenders crawl in or attempt to crawl in without detection, they will be removed by H.M. Chief ortirer and meeted out swift justice.

BY THEIR MAJESTIES ROYAL DECREE (Hereafter known as Amendments to the Indecency Act)

DOLPHINIUS

Clock of the Court, A.F.O., C.G.I., G.F.I., N.B.G.

CHARGES AND SENTENCES OF THE COURT.

P/O STRONG : Is hereby charged under Section 40 of the Dog Act with:-

1. While on the high sea resorting to the use of foul words not fit for the ears of Sailor Men.
2. Is charged with flagrantly Flaunting a Facial Fungoid growth and Frequently Fumigating it and his fellows with a Foul and oetid Free French Briar.
3. Warbling woefully on a wee begone wooden Whistle "Wouldn'T it"

P/O Strong is found Guilty on all counts:-

To be forcibly taken to the Court Surgeon who will do his damdest to chastise his foul mouth with the many wondrous washes at his disposal. He will then be cast to the Torturers who will render this disgusting body to a state of complete Subjection, so that His Fellow Flurs may in future be free from the filthy foul Fumes frequently freed from his free French Funnel.

P/O KELLY. 1. Being unlike that very worthy name-sake (NED) who through his total disregard for Sleep, Sloth, and Silence, gained for himself a name second to none in Australian History:-

2. Endeavouring to Emulate that elegant bird the Emu by encouraging an elongation of the Eiderdown on the Epidermis (in other words growing a mox)

P/O Kelly to be turned over to the tender Mercies of the Torturers' side-kick, who will give him such a rude awakening that he will forever scorn sleep and become more NED like - then to the Court Barber for Shampoo and Shave.

P/O RAMSAY. Charged under the Pure Foods Act 1066 of - Nauseatingly gnawing, neurotically- never nibbling nervously - now, numerous and nourishing nautical entrees.

SENTENCE: To be forcibly fed with Dr. Castamis fat, flesh, skin and Hair Remover, and his skeleton to be passed to the Torturer for suitable treatment.

SUB/LT. HOUSMAN Charged with conduct to the prejudice of good order and Marine Discipline in that whilst in the Port of New Plymouth he did, in the dead of night stealthily sneak silently stationwards, scorning seductive socialites of this Southern Sanctuary, and wending his wanton way Wellingtonwards where written words will not permit the whole of his woeful and wily wooing of winsome Winnie to be repeated.

SENTENCE: On banded knee
Before His Majesty
He must confess his Doings
And then we'll know
As Time will show
Why he came back in RUINS.

SUR. LT. LUCY: Charged with aspiring to drive the schooner Ungeni to the Common danger and for declaring that Magnetic North to be Antipodes of True North.

SENTENCE: To repeat the words within the hearing of all
"Lucy Lucy Gender
Where did I wander
Round the Pole
Up the Pole
Wondering where I'd land her.
Then to Navigate himself to the Torture Chamber for the usual brutal Treatment.

SGT. BUSBY: Charged with having deprived the Court Barber of his right to Temporarily Toy with and totally terminate his tangled tresses.

SENTENCE: To be shampooed by the Court Barber, singed by the Torturer and scourged by AIR Schicklogunner.

SGT. DEVINE: Charged with Mutilating, mistreating and maliciously murdering that melodious Memory of that Miracle Machine (The Flying Mangle).

SENTENCE: Be dragged to the Torture Chamber where he will undergo a course of Dr. Gastem's Memory Reviver, and then with mouth filled with Gastem's Lousy Lung Tonic, sing the verse he forgot.

SGT. GOODING: Charged with Knot Knowing Know-how a Morse from a Moÿse and declaring it to be a moulting mouse.

SENTENCE: Crawl on all fours in a Morse like fashion into the Tortures Trap (Ack R) and his chastened soul emerges to sing
"Three Blind Mice " (In Morse).

SGT. MONDAY: Charged with - While at 4 R.D. putting forward a Cock and Bull Story about a Dog Medal, knowing full well he endangered himself to paying for same at a cost of 21 beers, and without due regard for the thirst of his boozing cobbers.

SENTENCE: To be led like a dog to the stocks, where his conduct will be in keeping with the habits of that sagacious creature - preferanly POODLE.

MICHAEL: Charged with having neglected, to study the science of Ship Recognition, mistaking a Chinese Junk for a Japanese Aircraft Carrier.

SENT NCE: To be handed over to the Bears who will give him an opportunity of getting a good idea of what it feels like to be a Submarine.

MR. HARRIS: Charged with SINcopating the heart (fortissimo) of Flossie Fewclothes - Palmerston's Fairest Female (Pianissimo)

SENTENCE: With Spring in the Air he will swing in the Air and do a couple of loops.
For Neptune we know this pianist will throw
In the drink and thereby amuse all the troops.

MR. JOHNS: Charged under the Widows and Orphans Act (1818) with - while on the high seas, having deserted his "Housewife" leaving her unprotected from the dangers she may encounter in a foreign land.

SENTENCE: Place himself in the gentle care of Air Schickle-gunner and Ivan the Terrible who will give him a 1st Class idea of what it's like not to be deserted.

MR. PASK: Charged with while at Wellington he did wilfully and with just aforethought absent himself from the AMK WAGON for the express purpose of consorting with a lady willing to have her morals reduced to his own low standard.

SENTENCE: Handed over to the Court Surgeon for a soul purge and hoisted to the high moral standard of Air Schickle-gunner.

MR. McHAELIN: Charged with, while at the St. George Hotel, Wellington, indulging in such heinous, horrible and hectic hilarity that this honoured and erstwhile sedate hostelry has now become known as "St. George and the Dragon"

SENTENCE: Crawl in a Dragon like manner to the Torture Chamber where Ivan will drag some of the vice from his scaly hide.

MR. BUCHANAN: Charged with, while at Rotorua pleasure resort of North Island N.Z. wilfully, and knowing it to be incorrect, did falsely declare to the local press representative that she was Mister J. Buchanan. As this is a most misleading statement, a damned dim view must be taken by the Court.

SENTENCE: To the Court Barber for a Shampoo and a sample his latest most girlish hair-do.

SGT. PYLE: Charged with occupying too much deck space with his ruddy great "plates of meat" while standing, and causing too much wind resistance with same while lying down.

SENTENCE: To undergo Dr. Gasten's guaranteed gory foot rot treatment.

SGT. ROSE: Charged under Concerting Act of 1945 with "Laughing and Joking to keep up his snaking," thus botting a few tons of fags. This habit though swift is the outcome of thrift, and will reduce some poor cove down to rags.

SENTENCE: To endeavour to bot a cigarette from Air Schickle-gunner, one of his famous Choice Swastika smoke floats, and smoke same in the presence of the Torturers.

SGT. WALKER: Charged with being disatisfied with being a worker and attempting to become a skater.

SENTENCE: While being shampooed by Gullet Raiza-Blaid, to whistle the "Skaters' Waltz".

SGT. BEEKE: Charged with succumbing to the seductive charms of Delilah, and allowing himself to be deprived of all visible signs of manhood.

SENTENCE: To convince the Court that his lapse was only Temporary, by applying to the Court Barber for a wig for his top lip.

SGT. CAMPBELL: Charged under a Scottish Law- all copies of which were lost at the Battle of Bannockburn - with, While Listening to the liltng lyrics of the "Campbells are Coming" did usurp the prowess of his forefathers as a saber thrower and descend to the lowly status of a Grecian Discus Thrower.

SENTENCE: To be goaded to the Torture Chamber where he will be given ample opportunity to grovel in the ashes that he so wantonly threw, with the discus.

SGT. JONES: Charged with on or about 17th July 1943, he did with Malice aforethought insist on playing his ukelele as the boat sailed on, and with continuing to have done this ever since.

SENTENCE: That he be 'Laid on the rack and his stern strummed by Ivan the Terrible, to the tune of "Boomp-a-Daisy".

T. TOSLIM: Charged with aiding and abetting the previous vile malefactor by croaking like a bull frog with the resonance of Paul Robeson.

SENTENCE: To have his Tonsils torn by the Terrible Torturer until such time that he has really something to croon for.

R. TOSLIM P.: Charged under section XII of the Marine Safety Act in that he did wilfully and with malice aforethought neglect to prevent a Medicine Ball from entering the Pacific Ocean, thus causing his Pisatorial Majesty's Domain to become littered with Piocox and jocosm.

SENTENCE: He will be taken to Dr. Gaston's and have another good Medicine Ball rammed down his throat.

MR. T. TOSLIMTON: Charged with indecent behaviour, and appearing before the clean of mind improperly dressed for the express purpose of arousing an immoral, suggestive and highly porno-body waggie.

SENTENCE: To Waltze Matilda through a cordon of Air Schicklegunners Gastapo, on his way to the Torture Chamber, where he will get something to waggie for.

T. SIMON: Charged with simplicity and pie pinching, supported by the following evidence (entirely hearsay) -
Simple Simon met a pie-man
On his way to Frankton
Said Simple Simon
To the Pie-man
I only swiped one - Dinky Die.

SENTENCE: To be purged by Dr. Gashem and searched for Pies by the Gestapo.

MR. SIMON: Charged with conduct to the prejudice of Gasonova and Don Juan in that, at Hstorun - well he knows the rest.

SENTENCE: He will Dance a Maori Haka and greet Her Majesty Asphritite with the Hongi.

MR. SIMON: charged with contravening the Pawnbrokers and Money Lenders Act 1943 in that he did not display three brass balls as required while practising his much needed profession.

SENTENCE: He will be taken by Air Schicklegunner, who will take an interest in his rate of interest (if any). He will be considerably introduced by the Gestapo to Ivan the Terrible who will extract from him howls for Mecky without interest.

E. CASSMAN: Charged with defiling the body beautiful, and persuading a Virgin - when on the verge - to surrender to his foul and hunched embrace.

SENTENCE: He will be taken before Ivan the Terrible whose sidekick will endeavour to convince him that although he has a hump, he is not necessarily a camel, and by way of reparation to Remedala for the wrong he has done her will sing a verse of "She was Poor but she was Honest".

E. CHURCH: charged with forsaking her Amateur Status to take up the more profitable one of professional - - - - (gold digging)

SENTENCE: By confessing her folly to Amphritite, who will in a motherly way explain to this simple misguided girl that its not a sin if you struggle (soul balm from Kings Cross).

E. McSTAY: Charged with having sold his coat for a mess of pottage (9x beer) while circumventing Mount Egmont.

SENTENCE: After being measured for a New Coat by the Torturers will sing his song of optimism "It'll be coming round the Mountain when it comes".

E. McNEILAN: Charged with failing to "head on" while at O.T.U. and not realising that £40 from £25 does not leave any change.

SENTENCE: Will be belaboured by Air Schicklegunner and thrown to the mercy of Ivan the Terrible and his cobbler, who will teach him a new kind of Two-Up.

E. MARTIN: (L.O.11) Charged with injuring the tender susceptibilities of the gentle Lassie with his foul reference to the ball and chain and heinous references to the sweet demure virtuous damsels of Kings Cross, Montague Road, Roe St., Little Lonsdale St., etc.

SENTENCE: To be moved as forcibly as possible by the Swastika Boys into the presence of Ivan The Terrible who will in his usual tactful manner explain to this odious Pommy that it is noted that History has again repeated itself by his presence in Lassie, and that he may consider himself fortunate that scrap iron is too valuable a commodity to waste in making a ball and chain for a slander like him.