 Came home. At from the office,
 Mother had to come & fetch me,
 disgraced myself by being sick
 in the station yard at Dr came to see me. I am to stay in bed until he comes tomorrow.

JANUARY

7 No Dr today, he is too busy to come, strange. Fri. I have finished 'The Strong City' which I enjoyed immensely & have now a great number of mounds to get through, though only in books.

8 Dr came again today + Sat. I can get up, which is a relief. Came down & listened to the records. The Saturday Night Theatre was very good. Cecil Parker took chief role.

JANUARY

1944

9 Another lousy day. the Dr Sun. came this afternoon with his bag of tricks & tested me for the screws. No result, an X-Ray is the next thing. I do love these elegant poses.

10 Full Moon Mon. There is nothing to do so there is nothing to put in a diary. Eat, sleep & read. I still revolve this & that I bett' have. I was very good.

11 Hilary Law Sitings begin

Tues.

Still eat, sleep & read.

12

Wed.

Phoned up the Doctor & had to go to the hospital for an appointment for my X Ray. I had to drink down the awful whitewash stuff.

1944

13

Went for my X Ray today after the 1st one was allowed a cup of tea, don't think one has ever tasted so good & that is saying something.

14

Went out today to enjoy myself & felt so awful that I was glad to get home. Saw 'New Voyager' with Bette Davis it was very good.

Sat.

To say that it was a foggy day would be grossly underestimating it. The trains + buses stopped turning.

16

2nd after Epiphany

Sun.

Still foggy but not quite so bad. Just sat + sat + sat, read + played + patience. to drink down the white stuff.

17

Mon.

Started back at work, felt a bit wobbly + strange. Mr Miller had me up + said I wasn't to worry about Esatwork. Managed to do Mr Hoar's figures. Home early.

Sat.

Very lazy day, must be getting old, because I enjoyed it. Did a great deal of knitting a little sleeping & some reading. Good play on the wireless, made me cry. Giddys Young excellent.

7

4th after Easter

Sun.

Another lazy day, got up at 9.30. Did some house work, wrote a letter or two washed my hair. Finished Jackie socks, two stitches wrong, spoils the whole thing.
