Instructions to Airman.

1. You will be held personally responsible for the safe custody of this book.
2. You will always carry the book on your person both home and abroad.
3. You must produce this book whenever called upon to do so by a competent authority, civil, naval, military, or air.
4. You must not alter or make any entry in the book, and disobedience of this order will be treated as a serious offence.
5. Should you consider that any entry in the book is wrong or incorrect, or should you lose the book, you will report the matter to your immediate superior in Royal Air Force. Any change in name or address of person to be informed of vacancies must be reported immediately to your Commanding Officer.
6. If an airman wishes to make a short Will (for particulars see p. 9) he should do so on p. 10. It must be signed by him in the presence of two witnesses, both of whom must sign it in his and in one another's presence; but if the Will is made by an airman on active service, or under orders for active service, it does not require any witnesses' signatures. The full names and addresses of the persons whom he desires to benefit, and the money or property which he desires to leave them, must be clearly stated.

The enemy wants information about you, your unit, your destination, your military, naval or air status, in order to plan an attack on what nationality he is. It will do him almost no good if you do not tell him in the dark. Giving up military secrets is highly dangerous to the success of our cause and reports any traitorous individual.

Short Form of Will.

An airman may make his will on the next page. He must sign it in the presence of two witnesses, both of whom must sign it in his and in one another's presence, unless he is on active service or under orders for active service, in which case, provided the will is in his own handwriting and signed by him and dated, it requires no witnesses. The full names and addresses of the persons whom he desires to benefit, and the sum of money or the real estate property which he wishes to leave to them, must be clearly stated. The more fully the name of an individual legatee on the next page without any mention of what he legatee is to receive is of no legal value.

The following is a specimen of a will leaving all to one person:—

This is the last will and testament of Thomas Brown, A.C. 1, No. 1798, R.A.F. In the event of my death I give the whole of my property and effects to my mother, Mrs. Mary Brown, 990, High Street, Aldershot, and I appoint my father, Mr. W. Brown, as my executor. Dated this 1st day of August, 1918.

(Signed) THOMAS BROWN,

A.C. 1, No. 1798,

20th Squadron, Royal Air Force.

The following is a specimen of a will leaving legacies to more than one person:—
