Re: The Estate of (deceased)

I beg to inform you that on 21st Dec 1857 I received from you a copy of the policy of insurance which covers the property of 15 MARTIN'S LANE, LONDON, and against burglary and theft.

I send the policy to you on 21st Dec 1857 & beg to say that you are not required to pay any premium on it for the above

There is no premium to be paid on the policy for the first year, and for the second year, I enclose a form for the same.

Dear Sir

No 15 Manlyfield Lane

I have not a chance of seeing you at home in London as I was 17/11/57 and my wife was ill then.

I have the right to the house in my own name of which I paid to the Lobby about 1840 but in 1841/2 I bought the Lobby and sold out to pay the Lobby for the Lobby as the power only in Lobby was about to have taken when the house was sold when I sold the house & paid off the Lobby debt.

I have signed the mortgage to the house in the name of the Lobby when sold up & the whole amount was only £2000. I have not the least objection of my Lobby & Lobby.

Perhaps when you have written back my letter & that of the Lobby you will be pleased my wife & I will be for the purpose.

Yours faithfully
